Ridge's sister goes Hollywood!

It's true. Ridge's sister starred in the new movie Wiener Dog Nationals as the beautiful English cream dachshund owned by Ms. Merriweather, a snobbish and conniving competitor in an annual dachshund race for the national championship.

This story has an interesting twist because a different dachshund had already been cast in the role as Princess. But, Morgan Fairchild just by chance met Lana and fell in love with her. It was Ms. Fairchild herself that recast the part of Princess using Ridge's sister Lana in the role.

Fortunately, Princess's role does not cast a bad light on creams; it is just Ms. Merriweather who is the antagonist in the movie. Lana is the first English cream to hit Hollywood.

Wienerschnitzel is for everyone!

The movie Wiener Dogs Nationals is based on the real life Wienerschnitzel held every year in San Diego, California. The race is pure family fun, and unlike the movie, it is not a serious competition. Even dogs in the finals have been known to stop and visit other dogs or meander off the track while racing. Proceeds from the Wienerschnitzel are all donated to charity; some even goes to animal welfare organizations.

Family Movie Time

Wiener Dog Nationals is a three star movie that will be enjoyed by anyone who is a true dachshund enthusiast, and this film is family friendly for kids of all ages. The movie can be rented at Red Box and is available for purchase at retail stores.
